U. S. PROTESTS SHELLING DAMASCUS

BOTH AMERICA AND BRITAIN LINE UP AGAINST FRENCHMEN

The Mohammedans Resent the Incursion of the Latins—France Makes a Fatal Mistake In Bombarding City—Nearly a Thousand People Killed—Useless Slaughter Has Aroused the Enmity of the Entire Moslem World—Jews Suffer Heavily.

tinues, "and this may be the beginning of a new war of Islam against the Christian powers. No one knows where the next attack may occur."

Alexandre Millerand, in the French senate committee, demanded the recall of General Sarrail, French high commissioner in Syria. He declared that General Sarrail was responsible for the death of 3,000 French soldiers and serious injury to the prestige of France, so he could cover the blunder of the party that had appointed him to the post.

FIRST TO COME FIRST SERVED SAYS COURT

Failure of French authorities in Damascus to give warning to American residents before the punitive bombardment of certain sections of the city last week has prompted the Washington government to make representations thru Ambassador Myron T. Herrick to the Foreign office in Paris.

No American lives were lost, nor was any American injured, so far as official advices have reported, but damage was caused to property owned by Americans, and suitable claims will be filed with the French government when the necessary data is available.

The more serious aspect of the situation lies in the fact that reports received from the American consul show that, while French families were withdrawn to places of safety before the bombardment, no warning was given to the American consul or to American or other foreign residents.

The American Consulate is situated in the Christian quarter of Damascus and American nationals reside in the surrounding sections, which were subjected to artillery fire as a warning to the native population and a retaliation against those who had joined Druse tribesmen in rioting and attacks upon the French soldiery and police.

The instructions sent to Ambassador Herrick covered only the making of representations as to protection to be accorded by the French authorities to American lives and property.

There is little doubt, however, but that they gave room for vigorous language by the Ambassador in calling attention to the imperiling of American lives without warning.

Officials in Washington Thursday would not go beyond confirming that such representations had been made by the ambassador on instructions from Washington.

But there is no question that the Washington government feels that, in common with other governments, it has the right to expect the Paris government to take definite steps to establish responsibility for the failure to warn American nationals and to take disciplinary action.

A Jerusalem dispatch to the Daily Telegraph says that homes of American residents and buildings of American companies in Damascus were destroyed during the insurrection of October 18 to 20 and that the American consul has presented a demand for redress to the French authorities.

The dispatch says a large part of the Jewish quarter of Damascus was destroyed by French artillery and that hundreds of Jewish residents are reported to have been killed.

"All Syria is reported to be aflame with discontent," the dispatch continues.

PRESIDENT'S SON APPOINTED

DENY CHARGE INFIRMARY IS UNSANITARY

State Inspector Says Tuscarawas Buildings are Unfit For Occupancy.

New Philadelphia, O., Oct. 30 (UP)—Charges by State Inspector S. C. Griffin that unsanitary conditions prevail at the Tuscarawas county infirmary, were denied by county commissioners today following an investigation.

Fourteen deaths have occurred at the home in the past three months and Griffin in a report on the home, said the buildings were dilapidated and unsanitary and that the inmates did not receive proper attention.

County commissioners said they found the buildings to be unsafe but conditions, otherwise, were good. The deaths, they said, were due to infirmities of old age and cases of persons hopelessly ill.

Nearly all of the inmates spoke well of their treatment, the commissioners said.

All of the buildings, with the exception of the administration building erected in 1911, were found to be obsolete and dangerous.

HALLOWEEN PARTY

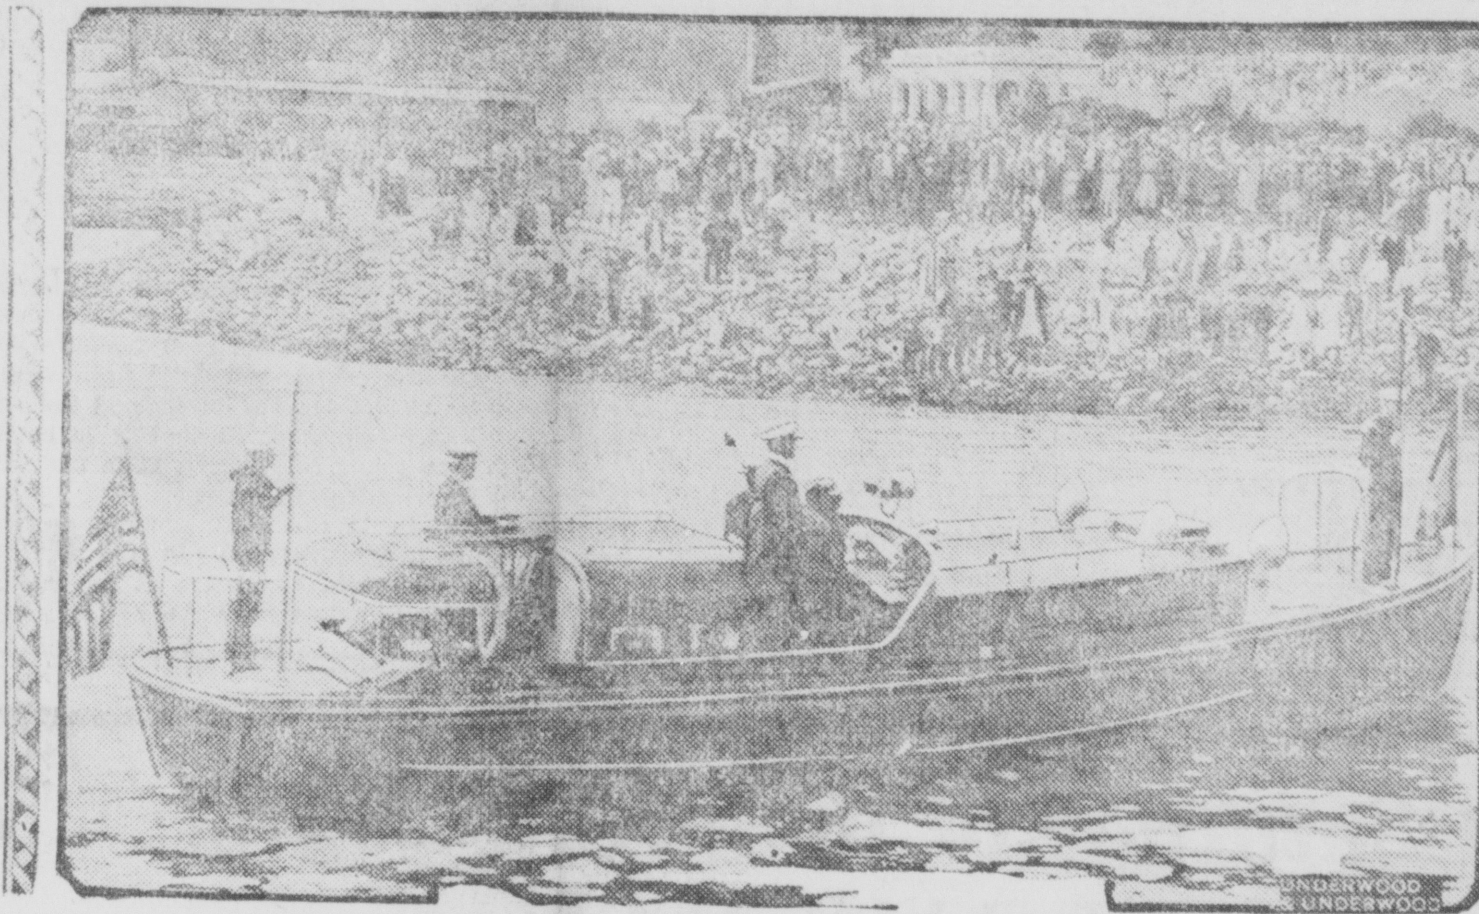

A very delightful Halloween party was given Tuesday evening at the United Brethren Community house by the Christian Endeavor societies. Nearly all the large number that were present came masked and after the grand march Mrs. Ellen Hegele was given the first prize for the grownups as being the most comical. Eleanor Vandervort was given the first prize for the children. A fine program followed consisting of readings, recitations and music under the leadership of Mrs. Bessie Long.

The Junior superintendent, Miss Eleanor Pierce, then took charge of the games, stunts, etc., and a happy time followed which was highly enjoyed by the little folks. Last but not least, followed the eats consisting of pumpkin pie with whipped cream, ice cream and coffee. Needless to say all did ample justice to it. The rooms were prettily decorated with orange tissue paper and real pumpkins. About one hundred members and visitors enjoyed the evening's fun.

AUTO STOLEN

Mrs. Mary Morris, county recorder lost her car Friday evening. The machine, a Studebaker light six, was stolen from a garage in the rear of her home on Watt street. The car was insured against theft in the Boyle & Johnson agency.

Another Mayflower Landing at Plymouth

The entire town lined the shore as the launch from the yacht landed the party on the exact spot where the Pilgrims landed so many years ago.

Cleveland, O., Oct. 29 (UP)—Bayard T. Wright, city engineer of Bedford, Ohio, was accused of "fraudulently realizing $12,079.45 in a suit filed here to collect that amount."

The suit was instituted by Arthur H. Clark, president of the Cleveland Worm & Gear company and John Freeman, general manager of the Taylor Chair company, Bedford, who charged:

That Wright, in violation of state statutes, made contracts for grading and other public works with Bedford and sold cinders and other supplies which he obtained gratis from the Cleveland Electric Illuminating company.

That Wright let contracts to himself and to others who sublet the contracts to him, in violation of state statutes.

That Wright, by these means, has received in salary $80,000 since 1923.

J., is probably the only person in America who earns an excellent living by suggesting suitable names for new products, new houses, new shops—indeed, anything that requires naming, except babies. Miss Rogers has a natural knack for nomenclature, and she has studied many languages and dug into musty tomes to gather words for her clients.

HAPPENINGS IN OUR STATE

Taken Direct From Wires By Correspondents of the United States Press Association.

(United Press)

Columbus—Charles McHale, Youngstown, Thursday asked Attorney General Crabbe to institute suit to oust members of the Youngstown township park commission.

The request was based, primarily on Crabbe's opinion of last month, holding the Ott act, under which the commissioners hold office, is unconstitutional. Other charges were involved but were not revealed.

Columbus—The public utilities commission is investigating reported wholesale violations of the state motor bus act in and near Youngstown. James B. Dugan, secretary of the commission, announced Thursday. Dugan said three inspectors are operating in the Youngstown area and arrests may be expected.

Cleveland—The S. S. Andres, ocean going freighter is believed in trouble on Lake Erie. The boat enroute from Hamilton, Ontario, to Cleveland is 20 hours over due.

The Andres left Hamilton Tuesday and was due here Wednesday. A crew of 18 is aboard. Frank Lane, New York City operator of the boat says he has little fear of the vessel foundering and believes the heavy winds near the Hamilton locks have hindered the boats progress.

The S. S. Andres is the second ocean going freighter ever scheduled for Cleveland docking.

Dayton—Harry Johnson, 32, won't mistreat his baby nor will he blacken his wife's eyes—not for the next sixty days at any rate. In addition to a sentence at the works, a fine of $200 was tacked on for good measure. Mrs. Johnson appeared in court with her face badly battered, told her story and the court did the rest.

Dayton—A Dayton Thursday had prospects of becoming the home of a branch factory of the Electrolux company, of Stockholm, Sweden. E. W. Aurel, president of the company and several officials are here looking over a prospective location. The main plant in Stockholm turns out 1,000 vacuum sweepers daily.

Athens—Mrs. Thomas Williams, 30 of Oreton, Vinton county, believed to have been killed in a fall over a cliff near Albany, Ohio, was located Thursday visiting a sister near Glouster. Athens authorities previously had announced the body of a woman found at the base of the cliff was that of Mrs. Williams. Police resumed an investigation in an attempt to identify the body.

Boy Saves Sister

Cottonwood, Mont.—When his infant sister fell into a water tank on their ranch a few days ago, George, five years of age, son of Mr. and Mrs. George Osler, took a pail and fished her out. The water was over the little boy's head, but his method of rescue was as prompt as unique.

The little fellow was unable to pull out the bucket with the baby in it, but held on until elders came for whom he had sent his three-year-old brother.

FEED BEES WITH SYRUP
Before Cold Weather Sets In, Is Advice of Agriculture Chief.

Columbus, Oct. 28.—In an official bulletin Charles V. Truax, Director of Agriculture, advised the people of Ohio that reports to his office "indicate that bees will enter the winter with considerable deficiency of stores." Cold and inclement weather is responsible, he said.
Suggestion is made that the owners feed the bees with syrup or sugar before cold weather sets in. Good, healthy bees for next summer may be brought about by artificial feeding, Mr. Truax said.
Although no intimation was given in the bulletin, establishment of special tag days for the relief of needy bees may be necessary before spring. "Honey kitchens," corresponding to the soup kitchens for jobless workers, also may be established.
Mr. Truax is keeping a close watch on the situation and is to inform the public from time to time of the condition of bees in Ohio.

Smoked Gull Highly Esteemed in Iceland
To shoot a sea gull, take it home and roast it would be a foolish deed, for the coarse and fishy flesh would be uneatable; but in Iceland the sea gull is so prepared that it is better than young chicken. It is, in fact, the favorite Iceland plate.
Gulls in the early summer nest by the hundred thousand in Iceland. The young gulls, which are as fat as butter, are taken from the nests by professional gull catchers, who at once kill and skin them. The bodies are then dipped for a few seconds in boiling water. This absolutely destroys the fishy taste.
The young gulls can be eaten immediately, or they can be hung in smoke till dried. The latter is the favorite method, as it provides an abundant stock of gull meat for winter use.
These smoked gulls are as delicious as any game bird, while they are fat and nourishing beyond belief.

The time is passed when the measure of the value of a memorial is quantity. I hope the time has come when that measure is quality. I care not whether the material be marble or granite, its future will be measured by the character of the design. It is quality that has preserved for us the finest examples in painting and sculpture. It is quality that will stamp our imprint upon cemeteries of the future. Simplicity, correct lines and proportions and proper ornamentation are the real fundamentals. A design that is right, material that is lasting and perfect workmanship, spells success for the future of this industry and the beautification of the cemetery. Will you let me help you select the memorial for your lot. Call at show room. NO AGENTS.

Glider Releases Bombs

In order to insure safety for air-men planting or dropping bombs, a glider device has been perfected and tried out with some success. This motorless glider releases bombs from the battle plane and permits the pilot of a raiding bomber to release his cargo at a distance safe from the enemy aircraft gun, sending the glider into the direction of the enemy object.

SOCIAL CALENDAR

Mrs. John S. Neff was pleasantly surprised with a birthday luncheon Thursday at her home on East Union street. Covers were laid for eight and menu and decorations were in appropriate Hallowe'en colors.

On the occasion of his seventy-sixth anniversary of his birth, the venerable Levi J. Graumlich, of Duvall, was completely surprised Sunday, October 25, when his family celebrated his birthday which fell upon Saturday, October 24, with a family gathering, birthday dinner and a very social day at the Graumlich residence on the Ashville pike. The unsuspecting honor guest had gone to Ashville where he is a regular attendant at Sunday school and church and the surprise came when he returned to his home and found his family congregated there, awaiting his return. A bounteous dinner which had been prepared was upon the table awaiting the guests; Mr. and Mrs. Z. L. Graumlich and children; Marie, Walter and Irene, Mr. and Mrs. A. K. Graumlich and children, Theodore, whose birthday was October 11, 1909, and Mary, whose birth was October 29, 1920; Dr. and Mrs. S. D. Graumlich and children, Harold, Stanley, Helen and Dorothy; Walter Pickel Sr., and Walter Pickel Jr., Jacob Roschy, Norton Elliott, Mr. and Mrs. William Steward and son, Albert, Mr. and Mrs. L. J. Graumlich.—Pickaway News.

A quiet wedding of interest to a wide circle of friends, united in marriage Saturday morning as the hands of the clock went up to eleven, Miss Hazel Kathryn McCoy, daughter of Mrs. Joshua McCoy and Mr. Eugene D. Alkire, son of Mr. and Mrs. Frank D. Alkire of Williamsport. The wedding was beautifully solemnized at the home of Dr. and Mrs. S. B. Smith in Bloomingburg, Mrs. Smith a close friend of the bride, having claimed the privilege of giving her wedding. A white and green color scheme was most artistically carried out in decorating the large rooms and in creating a beautiful bridal altar on either side of which burned white cathedral candles. Just before the ceremony Mrs. Smith (nee Jessie Leavel) sang charmingly "O Perfect Love." The bridegroom and officiating minister, Rev. D. A. Kerns Preston, of the Bloomingburg Presbyterian church, took their places at the altar as the bride entered on the arm of her uncle, Dr. C. S. McCafferty, of Columbus, who gave her away. The charming bride, decidedly brunette in type, looked exceedingly pretty in a graceful gown of poudre blue crepe and georgette, with trimmings of cream lace and carrying a lovely shower bouquet of brideroses and asparagus fern. For going away later she donned a modish fall gown of black satin embroidered in gold with coat of Hudson seal and hat of black panne velvet, with coral appliqued flowers. The immediate families witnessed the Episcopal ring service impressively performed by Rev. Kerns Preston. A wedding breakfast was handsomely served, the bridal table centered with a basket of white flowers and greenery, streamers of white forming over head to the four corners of the table. Immediately after the breakfast Mr. and Mrs. Alkire left on a short motor trip dividing the flowers among the remaining guests as she left. After the first of November they will be at home on North Fayette street, Washington C. H. The best wishes of a host of friends, the friends of the bride's earlier residence in Bloomingburg and later in Washington C. H., and of those in Williamsport and vicinity, will follow the announcement of the nuptials. The bride is bright and attractive socially and also a competent young business woman. For the past two years has been connected with the clerical force of the Peoples and Drivers' bank and for the present will retain her position. The bridegroom is a sterling good fellow, as popular with his friends as his bride with hers. He has held a position in the government mail service for the past ten years and is also associated with his father in large farming interests. He is an active Mason and a Shriner.—Washington Herald.

A Daring Departure in 1921

..today, the nation's standard
for small home heating

"BEAUTIFUL, yes, but will it work?" Many questions, like this one, greeted the Heatrola in 1921. It was so different in appearance and operation from anything known before.

But Heatrola "worked!" From the day of the first installation, its success was assured. For Heatrola, handsome as a fine mahogany cabinet, and as easy to keep clean, does the work of a basement furnace! It keeps every room in the house, upstairs and down, cozy and snug in coldest weather. And requires no more fuel than any stove requires.

Tens of thousands of homes enjoyed Heatrola's furnace comfort last Winter—many thousands more will own Heatrolas before snow flies. Right here in this community, the homes of many of your neighbors are kept warm by this modern heating method. Let us show you these Heatrolas, and tell you how easily you can own one, too. Phone us—now, before Fall advances further.

Co-Operation in China
The remedy for the woes of China and the safeguard against these perils are in principle simplicity itself. Time and again it has been demonstrated that when the Chinese, whether in the capital or in the provinces, know that the powers are really earnest and united upon a common course of action, they bow without reserve to the demands made upon them. It is not creditable to the statesmanship of the principal powers concerned that they have not managed to preserve this unity in essentials when dealing with China.—London Times.

AMUSEMENTS

In Bebe Daniels' new picture, "The Manicure Girl," at the Metropolitan theater there is one sequence into which more comedy has been injected than in any other picture shown here in a long time. Bebe is the manicure girl and Edward Burns plays her sweetheart. He is very much in love with her, but being young and poor, he has a tough time in making both ends meet and keep up with his fiancée. Naturally, she likes nice things, and her job in an exclusive hotel brings her into contact with everything which she wants for herself.

Most of her customers are men, and all men who meet her seem to fall for her. Foremost of the battalion is Hale Hamilton, a much misunderstood husband.

Bebe lives with her sweetheart and his mother. One day she receives flowers from her rich admirer. Inside the bouquet is a ten dollar bill and a note telling her to buy theater tickets. Eddie flares up and makes her promise to return the money telling her he can pay for his own seats.

A few nights later they are leaving a theater after having enjoyed the show from "good" balcony seats. It is pouring rain. Eddie hasn't enough money for a taxi, so while Bebe waits in front of the theater he chases around town looking for an umbrella. The proprietress of Bebe's beauty shop passes in a friend's car and offers her alibi but she refuses.

At this crucial moment, Hale drives by in his limousine. She hops in but asks him to wait for Eddie. A traffic cop makes them move along, so that when Burns returns she has just disappeared into clear or rather—the wet air.

Has Jesus Christ Been Parceled Out?
"Brothers, for the sake of our Lord Jesus Christ, I beg of you all to drop these party cries. There must be no cliques among you; you must regain your common temper and attitude. For Chloe's people inform me that you are quarreling. By "quarreling" I mean that each of you has his party cry, "I belong to Paul," "and I to Apollos," "and I to Cephas" "and I to Christ." Has Christ been parceled out? Was it Paul who was crucified for you? Was it in Paul's name you were baptized? You are still worldly. For with jealousy and quarrels in your midst, are you not worldly, are you not behaving like ordinary men? When one cries, "I belong to Paul," and another, "I belong to Apollos," what are you but men of the world?" 1 Corinthians 1-10-14; 3:3-5; —Maf-fatt's Translation.

Science Called On to Come to Nature's Aid

Some alarm has been caused recently by the announcement that the Matterhorn is in a distinctly shaky condition, and may topple over into the Italian valley above which it towers.

Similar fears were entertained some twenty years ago regarding the Rocher de la Clusette, in the Jura, which then threatened to fall into the valley of the Aare. Had this happened, the valley would have been blocked, and the flow of water, on which the district depended for its supply of electricity, would have been stopped.

Immediate action had to be taken to avert this calamity, which would have plunged the countryside in darkness and disorganized its transport. Engineers rushed to the spot, the mountain was shored up with concrete, and all was well once more.

A System of Farming That Brings Health and Prosperity

Every farm, regardless of the method of farming practiced or of the crops raised, should have at least a few good milch cows to provide

- (1) Enough milk, cream and butter for home use;
- (2) Enough skim-milk to raise some calves, pigs and chickens;
- (3) Enough cream or butter to sell to pay, in part or entirely, current living expenses.

This plan has been a "life-saver" for thousands of farmers, especially during the hard times of the past two years. It insures a living, at least, and often other income besides.

Such a plan pays best with a De Laval Cream Separator. It soon pays for itself—and skims cleaner, lasts longer and is easier to operate and clean than any other.

THE PRESIDENT'S CHALLENGE

There is a deep significance in what President Coolidge had to say to the National Council of Congregational Churches of the United States at Washington recently.

As a matter of fact, he there proclaimed a warning more emphatic even than that implied in the recent report of the Council of Federated Churches.

It is taken for granted that the Republican party in the next presidential campaign will espouse the dry cause, and that President Coolidge will be his party's candidate for re-election. He will champion national prohibition, for it is the law. His public utterances before he became President prove that he considers the prohibition amendment among the deplorable departures from the fundamental principles of the American republic which committed to the states the regulation of the conduct of citizens.

In his address to the Congregationalists President Coolidge defined no distinctions of lawlessness, but it is very apparent that he had in mind the lawlessness growing out of the adoption of the Eighteenth Amendment and the Volstead enforcement act.

He frankly told his hearers that the Government should not be criticized for "failure to reform all morals, to prevent all crime and generally to abolish all evil." He said:

"I have great faith in the local and National Governments of the United States, but much of this field is beyond their reach. They were not established to discharge this duty; they are utterly unable to accomplish it."

President Coolidge asserted that "lawlessness is altogether too prevalent and lack of respect for government and the conventions of enlightened society too apparent."

This, rather vehemently, is denied by prominent uplifiers of the prohibition persuasion. But the President is not to be deceived. His mind is not obscured by prejudice. He challenges religion to do its duty. He holds that religion and law must be linked together, that evil can be deterred only by constituted authority when backed by public sentiment. Responsibility for the breaking down of the law lies with the church-goer and society leaders, is his belief.

The President told his hearers: "The utmost ingenuity on the part of the police powers will be substantially all wasted in an effort to enforce the law if there does not exist a strong and vigorous determination on the part of the people to observe the law. Such a determination cannot be produced by the Government."

The President was not talking to or about bootleggers. He was talking to a public responsible for a state of "lawlessness altogether too prevalent and a lack of respect for government and the conventions of enlightened society too apparent."

And this concluding wise admonition, which should penetrate the consciousness of even the most uncompromising fanatic:

"I can conceive of no adequate remedy for the evils which beset society except through the influences of religion."—Cincinnati Enquirer.

Got His Horseshoes
When the manager of an Allentown (Pa.) moving picture house inserted an advertisement in a paper announcing that every child with a horseshoe would be admitted to one afternoon's performance, he misjudged the horse population of the city. Instead of about 200 youngsters appearing with the "luck charm," 4,000 stormed the theater. Many of the horseshoes were new, and some horseshoeing establishments were obliged to lay in a new stock before they were able to continue in business.

BUCHANAN'S LOG CABIN TO BE SAVED

Birthplace of Former President to Be Memorial.

Chambersburg, Pa.—The weather-worn log cabin in which James Buchanan, fifteenth President of the United States, was born on April 23, 1791, is to be restored and preserved as a memorial to Pennsylvania's only President.

Built originally by the President's father in the mountains of southern Pennsylvania, the cabin was moved nearly a century ago to Mercersburg, where it has since stood, used much of the time as a tenant house. Now it is being torn down and moved again; this time to Chambersburg, where it will be rebuilt on a lot near the center of the town.

The elder Buchanan was an Irishman who came to America soon after the Revolution, and set out to make a living as a trader among the Indians and frontiersmen. Choosing a lonely spot in the hills north of the Maryland border he built two log cabins, one for a home and the other a store. In time his place became known to the traders as "Stony Batter."

His trading operations proved so profitable that Buchanan finally moved to Mercersburg and from there he sent his son to school and later to college. The younger man became a leader in local affairs and represented his district in the state legislature and in congress. In 1856 he was elected President. He died in Lancaster in 1868, and was buried there.

In later years the President's sisters erected a stone pyramid at the site of his birthplace. This stands today, hidden in a grove of pine trees.

The oak logs of the old cabin are well preserved.

Wisdom in a Nutshell

Pryor Irwin told this one while in Eldorado recently, says the Times. A woman wrote to Dorothy Dix, famous newspaper matrimonial and love consultant. Said the correspondent: "I am getting along in years and a man has asked me to marry him. It is probably my last chance. But I have a horrible secret. I have false teeth. I have concealed this from him so far. I am afraid that if I tell him of my affliction now he will refuse to marry me. And if he marries me and finds out my toothless state later, he will probably divorce me. What shall I do?" To which Miss Dix very aptly and very wisely replied: "Marry him and keep your mouth shut."—Kansas City Star.

None BUT The Rich Can Afford Cheap CLOTHES

In the final analysis "cheap" Clothes are expensive at any price.

They are seldom styled to retain their shape, consequently do not wear well, leaving a sense of disappointment to the wearer.

To delude yourself with the idea that because the initial price is small is false economy, because there is no saving in money. It is good judgment however, to buy your clothes from a wear investment standpoint and such clothes are

U. S. PROTESTS SHELLING DAMASCUS

BOTH AMERICA AND BRITAIN LINE UP AGAINST FRENCHMEN

The Mohammedans Resent the Incursion of the Latins
--France Makes a Fatal Mistake In Bombarding City--Nearly a Thousand People Killed--Useless Slaughter Has Aroused the Enmity of the Entire Moslem World--Jews Suffer Heavily.

Failure of French authorities in Damascus to give warning to American residents before the punitive bombardment of certain sections of the city last week has prompted the Washington government to make representations thru Ambassador Myron T. Herrick to the Foreign office in Paris.

No American lives were lost, nor was any American injured, so far as official advices have reported, but damage was caused to property owned by Americans, and suitable claims will be filed with the French government when the necessary data is available.

The more serious aspect of the situation lies in the fact that reports received from the American consul show that, while French families were withdrawn to places of safety before the bombardment, no warning was given to the American consul or to American or other foreign residents.

The American Consulate is situated in the Christian quarter of Damascus and American nationals reside in the surrounding sections, which were subjected to artillery fire as a warning to the native population and a retaliation against those who had joined Druse tribesmen in rioting and attacks upon the French soldiery and police.

The instructions sent to Ambassador Herrick covered only the making of representations as to protection to be accorded by the French authorities to American lives and property.

There is little doubt, however, but that they gave room for vigorous language by the Ambassador in calling attention to the imperiling of American lives without warning.

Officials in Washington Thursday would not go beyond confirming that such representations had been made by the ambassador on instructions from Washington.

But there is no question that the Washington government feels that, in common with other governments, it has the right to expect the Paris government to take definite steps to establish responsibility for the failure to warn American nationals and to take disciplinary action.

A Jerusalem dispatch to the Daily Telegraph says that homes of American residents and buildings of American companies in Damascus were destroyed during the insurrection of October 18 to 20 and that the American consul has presented a demand for redress to the French authorities.

The dispatch says a large part of the Jewish quarter of Damascus was destroyed by French artillery and that hundreds of Jewish residents are reported to have been killed.

"All Syria is reported to be aflame with discontent," the dispatch continues.

FIRST TO COME FIRST SERVED SAYS COURT

Columbus, O. Oct. 30 (UP)—The first 350 townships to apply, will receive $1,000 each from the state appropriation of $250,000 for township roads, under a decision announced by the supreme court.

The ruling was made in a suit brought against State Auditor Tracy by Muskingum township, Muskingum county.

Tracy had taken the view that the Green law, authorizing the appropriation, had intended the money to be divided equally among all townships of the state for road purposes.

Muskingum county commissioners sued, claiming Tracy's interpretation of the law was wrong.

DENY CHARGE INFIRMARY IS UNSANITARY

State Inspector Says Tuscarawas Buildings are Unfit For Occupancy.

New Philadelphia, O., Oct. 30 (UP)—Charges by State Inspector S. C. Griffin that unsanitary conditions prevail at the Tuscarawas county infirmary, were denied by county commissioners today following an investigation.

Fourteen deaths have occurred at the home in the past three months and Griffin in a report on the home, said the buildings were dilapidated and unsanitary and that the inmates did not receive proper attention.

County commissioners said they found the buildings to be unsafe but conditions, otherwise, were good. The deaths, they said, were due to infirmities of old age and cases of persons hopelessly ill.

Nearly all of the inmates spoke well of their treatment, the commissioners said.

All of the buildings, with the exception of the administration building erected in 1911, were found to be obsolete and dangerous.

HALLOWE'EN PARTY

A very delightful Halloween party was given Tuesday evening at the United Brethren Community house by the Christian Endeavor societies. Nearly all the large number that were present came masked and after the grand march Mrs. Ellen Hegele was given the first prize for the groupings as being the most comical. Eleanor Vandervort was given the first prize for the children. A fine program followed consisting of readings, recitations and music under the leadership of Mrs. Bessie Long.

The Junior superintendent, Miss Eleanor Pierce, then took charge of the games, stunts, etc., and a happy time followed which was highly enjoyed by the little folks. Last but not least, followed the eats consisting of pumpkin pie with whipped cream, ice cream and coffee. Needless to say all did ample justice to it. The rooms were prettily decorated with orange tissue paper and real pumpkins. About one hundred members and visitors enjoyed the evening's fun.

ENGINEER OF BEDFORD HAD GOOD SYSTEM

Made Contracts With Himself and Received $80,000 Salary Since 1923.

Cleveland, O. Oct. 29 (UP)—Bayard T. Wright, city engineer of Bedford, Ohio, was accused of "fraudulently realizing $12,079.45 in a suit filed here to collect that amount.

The suit was instituted by Arthur H. Clark, president of the Cleveland Worm & Gear company and John Freeman, general manager of the Taylor Chair company, Bedford, who charged:

That Wright, in violation of state statutes, made contracts for grading and other public works with Bedford and sold cinders and other supplies which he obtained gratis from the Cleveland Electric Illuminating company.

That Wright let contracts to himself and to others who sublet the contracts to him, in violation of state statutes.

That Wright, by these means, has received in salary $80,000 since 1923. Clark and Freeman said they filed with L. C. Landfour.

HAPPENINGS IN OUR STATE

Taken Direct From Wires By Correspondents of the United States Press Association.

(United Press)

Columbus—Charles McHale, Youngstown, Thursday asked Attorney General Crabbe to institute suit to oust members of the Youngstown township park commission.

The request was based, primarily on Crabbe's opinion of last month, holding the Ott act, under which the commissioners hold office, is unconstitutional. Other charges were involved but were not revealed.

Columbus—The public utilities commission is investigating reported wholesale violations of the state motor bus act in and near Youngstown. James B. Dugan, secretary of the commission, announced Thursday. Dugan said three inspectors are operating in the Youngstown area and arrests may be expected.

Toledo—The three story Marine building here was partially wrecked Thursday when freight cars being switched onto a spur, were derailed and crashed into the structure. Damage was estimated at several thousand dollars. Headquarters of the "40 and 8" of Toledo, are in the building. The offices were damaged.

Cleveland—The S. S. Andres, ocean going freighter is believed in trouble on Lake Erie. The boat enroute from Hamilton, Ontario, to Cleveland is 20 hours over due.

The Andres left Hamilton Tuesday and was due here Wednesday. A crew of 18 is aboard. Frank Lane, New York City, operator of the boat says he has little fear of the vessel foundering and believes the heavy winds near the Hamilton locks have hindered the boats progress.

The S. S. Andres is the second ocean going freighter ever scheduled for Cleveland docking.

Dayton—Harry Johnson, 32, won't mistreat his baby nor will he blacken his wife's eyes—not for the next sixty days at any rate. In addition to a sentence at the works, a fine of $200 was tacked on for good measure. Mrs. Johnson appeared in court with her face badly battered, told her story and the court did the rest.

Dayton—Dayton Thursday had prospects of becoming the home of a branch factory of the Electrolux company, of Stockholm, Sweden. E. W. Aurel, president of the company and several officials are here looking over a prospective location. The main plant in Stockholm turns out 1,000 vacuum sweepers daily.

Athens—Mrs. Thomas Williams, 30 of Oretton, Vinton county, believed to have been killed in a fall over a cliff near Albany, Ohio, was located Thursday visiting a sister near Glouster. Athens authorities previously had announced the body of a woman found at the base of the cliff was that of Mrs. Williams. Police resumed an investigation in an attempt to identify the body.

Mrs. J. H. Glick Dead

Mrs. Jacob H. Glick died at her home on the Walnut Creek pike this afternoon about two o'clock, of pneumonia.

Boy Saves Sister

Cottonwood, Mont.—When his infant sister fell into a water tank on their ranch a few days ago, George, five years of age, son of Mr. and Mrs. George Osler, took a pail and fished her out. The water was over the little boy's head, but his method of rescue was as prompt as unique.

The little fellow was unable to pull out the bucket with the baby in it, but held on until elders came for whom he had sent his three-year-old brother.

EDSON B. HEISE

HAS UNIQUE VOCATION

Miss Laura Lee Rogers of Elizabeth, N. J., is probably the only person in America who earns an excellent living by suggesting suitable names for new products, new houses, new shops—indeed, anything that requires naming, except babies. Miss Rogers has a natural knack for nomenclature, and she has studied many languages and dug into musty tomes to gather words for her clients.

FEED BEES WITH SYRUP

Before Cold Weather Sets In, Is Advice of Agriculture Chief.

Columbus, Oct. 28.—In an official bulletin Charles V. Truax, Director of Agriculture, advised the people of Ohio that reports to his office "indicate that bees will enter the winter with considerable deficiency of stores." Cold and inclement weather is responsible, he said.

Suggestion is made that the owners feed the bees with syrup or sugar before cold weather sets in. Good, healthy bees for next summer may be brought about by artificial feeding, Mr. Truax said.

Although no intimation was given in the bulletin, establishment of special tag days for the relief of needy bees may be necessary before spring. "Honey kitchens," corresponding to the soup kitchens for jobless workers, also may be established.

Mr. Truax is keeping a close watch on the situation and is to inform the public from time to time of the condition of bees in Ohio.

TWO HUNDRED THOUSAND DOLLAR

Fire Loss—One Dead, Three Missing.

Atlanta, Ga., Oct. 28.—(UP.)—Fire broke out in the bottling plant of the Coca Cola Company here early today, destroying the plant and burning to death Warren Moore, night watchman.

A man known as "Irish" Kaylor and his wife and son, who occupied rooms on the second floor of the building, are missing. Thomas C. Smith, a shipping clerk, jumped from a second story window to escape the flames, and was severely injured. The loss is estimate at $200,000.

Smoked Gull Highly Esteemed in Iceland

To shoot a sea gull, take it home and roast it would be a foolish deed, for the coarse and fishy flesh would be uneatable; but in Iceland the sea gull is so prepared that it is better than young chicken. It is, in fact, the favorite Iceland plate.

Gulls in the early summer nest by the hundred thousand in Iceland. The young gulls, which are as fat as butter, are taken from the nests by professional gull catchers, who at once kill and skin them. The bodies are then dipped for a few seconds in boiling water. This absolutely destroys the fishy taste.

The young gulls can be eaten immediately, or they can be hung in smoke till dried. The latter is the favorite method, as it provides an abundant stock of gull meat for winter use.

These smoked gulls are as delicious as any game bird, while they are fat and nourishing beyond belief.

The time is passed when the measure of the value of a memorial is quantity. I hope the time has come when that measure is quality. I care not whether the material be marble or granite, its future will be measured by the character of the design. It is quality that has preserved for us the finest examples in painting and sculpture. It is quality that will stamp our imprint upon cemeteries of the future. Simplicity, correct lines and proportions and proper ornamentation are the real fundamentals. A design that is right, material that is lasting and perfect workmanship, spells success for the future of this industry and the beautification of the cemetery. Will you let me help you select the memorial for your lot. Call at show room. NO AGENTS.

SOCIAL CALENDAR

Mrs. John S. Neff was pleasantly surprised with a birthday luncheon Thursday at her home on East Union street. Covers were laid for eight and menu and decorations were in appropriate Hallowe'en colors.

On the occasion of his seventy-sixth anniversary of his birth, the venerable Levi J. Graumlich, of Duvall, was completely surprised Sunday, October 25, when his family celebrated his birthday which fell upon Saturday, October 24, with a family gathering, birthday dinner and a very social day at the Graumlich residence on the Ashville pike. The unsuspecting honor guest had gone to Ashville where he is a regular attendant at Sunday school and church and the surprise came when he returned to his home and found his family congregated there, awaiting his return. A bounteous dinner which had been prepared was upon the table awaiting the guests; Mr. and Mrs. Z. L. Graumlich and children; Marie, Walter and Irene, Mr. and Mrs. A. K. Graumlich and children, Theodore, whose birthday was October 11, 1909, and Mary, whose birth was October 29, 1920; Dr. and Mrs. S. D. Graumlich and children, Harold, Stanley, Helen and Dorothy; Walter Pickel Sr., and Walter Pickel Jr., Jacob Roschy, Norton Elliott, Mr. and Mrs. William Steware and son, Albert, Mr. and Mrs. L. J. Graumlich.—Pickaway News.

A quiet wedding of interest to a wide circle of friends, united in marriage Saturday morning as the hands of the clock went up to eleven, Miss hazel Kathryn McCoy, daughter of Mrs. Joshua McCoy and Mr. Eugene D. Alkire, son of Mr. and Mrs. Frank D. Alkire of Williamsport. The wedding was beautifully solemnized at the home of Dr. and Mrs. S. B. Smith in Bloomingburg, Mrs. Smith a close friend of the bride, having claimed the privilege of giving her wedding. A white and green color scheme was most artistically carried out in decorating the large rooms and in creating a beautiful bridal altar on either side of which burned white cathedral candles. Just before the ceremony Mrs. Smith (nee Jessie Leavel) sang charmingly "O Perfect Love." The bridegroom and officiating minister, Rev. D. A. Kerns Preston, of the Bloomingburg Presbyterian church, took their places at the altar as the bride entered on the arm of her uncle, Dr. C. S. McCafferty, of Columbus, who gave her away. The charming bride, decidedly brunette in type, looked exceedingly pretty in a graceful gown of poudre blue crepe and georgette, with trimmings of cream lace and carrying a lovely shower bouquet of brideroses and asparagus fern. For going away later she donned a modish fall gown of black satin embroidered in gold with coat of Hudson seal and hat of black panne velvet, with coral applique flowers. The immediate families witnessed the Episcopal ring service impressively performed by Rev. Kerns Preston. A wedding breakfast was handsomely served, the bridal table centered with a basket of white flowers and greenery, streamers of white forming over head to the four corners of the table. Immediately after the breakfast Mr. and Mrs. Alkire left on a short motoring trip dividing the flowers among the remaining guests as she left. After the first of November they will be at home on North Fayette street, Washington C. H. The best wishes of a host of friends, the friends of the bride's earlier residence in Bloomingburg and later in Washington C. H., and of those in Williamsport and vicinity, will follow the announcement of the nuptials. The bride is bright and attractive socially and also a competent young business woman. For the past two years has been connected with the clerical force of the Peoples and Drivers' bank and for the present will retain her position. The bridegroom is a sterling good fellow, as popular with his friends as his bride with hers. He has held a position in the government mail service for the past ten years and is also associated with his father in large farming interests. He is an active Mason and a Shriner.—Washington Herald.

Shuts Off "Snoopers"

A Daring Departure in 1921

..today, the nation's standard
for small home heating

"BEAUTIFUL, yes, but will it work?" Many questions, like this one, greeted the Heatrola in 1921. It was so different in appearance and operation from anything known before.

But Heatrola "worked!" From the day of the first installation, its success was assured. For Heatrola, handsome as a fine mahogany cabinet, and as easy to keep clean, does the work of a basement furnace! It keeps every room in the house, upstairs and down, cozy and snug in coldest weather. And requires no more fuel than any stove requires.

Tens of thousands of homes enjoyed Heatrola's furnace comfort last Winter—many thousands more will own Heatrolas before snow flies. Right here in this community, the homes of many of your neighbors are kept warm by this modern heating method. Let us show you these Heatrolas, and tell you how easily you can own one, too. Phone us—now, before Fall advances further.

Co-Operation in China
The remedy for the woes of China and the safeguard against these perils are in principle simplicity itself. Time and again it has been demonstrated that when the Chinese, whether in the capital or in the provinces, know that the powers are really earnest and united upon a common course of action, they bow without reserve to the demands made upon them. It is not creditable to the statesmanship of the principal powers concerned that they have not managed to preserve this unity in essentials when dealing with China.—London Times.

AMUSEMENTS
In Bebe Daniels' new picture, "The Manicure Girl," at the Metropolitan theater there is one sequence into which more comedy has been injected than in any other picture shown here in a long time. Bebe is the manicure girl and Edward Burns plays her sweetheart. He is very much in love with her, but being young and poor, he has a tough time in making both ends meet and keep up with his fiancée. Naturally, she likes nice things, and her job in an exclusive hotel brings her into contact with everything which she wants for herself.
Most of her customers are men, and all men who meet her seem to fall for her. Foremost of the battalion is Hale Hamilton, a much misunderstood husband.
Bebe lives with her sweetheart and his mother. One day she receives flowers from her rich admirer. Inside the bouquet is a ten dollar bill and a note telling her to buy theater tickets. Eddie flares up and makes her promise to return the money telling her he can pay for his own seats.
A few nights later they are leaving a theater after having enjoyed the show from "good" balcony seats. It is pouring rain. Eddie hasn't enough money for a taxi, so while Bebe waits in front of the theater he chases around town looking for an umbrella. The proprietress of Bebe's beauty shop passes in a friend's car and offers her alibi but she refuses.
At this crucial moment, Hale drives by in his limousine. She hops in and asks him to wait for Eddie. A traffic cop makes them move along, so that when Burns returns she has just disappeared into clear or rather—the wet air.

Has Jesus Christ Been Parceled Out?
"Brothers, for the sake of our Lord Jesus Christ, I beg of you all to drop these party cries. There must be no cliques among you; you must regain your common temper and attitude. For Chloe's people inform me that you are quarreling. By "quarreling" I mean that each of you has his party cry, "I belong to Paul," "and I to "Apollos," "and I to Cephas" "and I to Christ." Has Christ been parceled out? Was it Paul who was crucified for you? Was it in Paul's name you were baptized? You are still worldly. For with jealousy and quarrels in your midst, are you not worldly, are you not behaving like ordinary men? When one cries, "I belong to Paul," and another, "I belong to Apollos," what are you but men of the world?" 1 Corinthians 1-10-14; 3:3-5; —Maffatt's Translation.

Science Called On toCome to Nature's Aid

Some alarm has been caused recently by the announcement that the Matterhorn is in a distinctly shaky condition, and may topple over into the Italian valley above which it towers.

Similar fears were entertained some twenty years ago regarding the Rocher de la Clusette, in the Jura, which then threatened to fall into the valley of the Areuse. Had this happened, the valley would have been blocked, and the flow of water, on which the district depended for its supply of electricity, would have been stopped.

Immediate action had to be taken to avert this calamity, which would have plunged the countryside in darkness and disorganized its transport. Engineers rushed to the spot, the mountain was shored up with concrete, and all was well once more.

A System of Farming That Brings Health and Prosperity

Every farm, regardless of the method of farming practiced or of the crops raised, should have at least a few good milch cows to provide

- (1) Enough milk, cream and butter for home use;
- (2) Enough skim-milk to raise some calves, pigs and chickens;
- (3) Enough cream or butter to sell to pay, in part or entirely, current living expenses.

This plan has been a "life-saver" for thousands of farmers, especially during the hard times of the past two years. It insures a living, at least, and often other income besides.

Such a plan pays best with a De Laval Cream Separator. It soon pays for itself—and skims cleaner, lasts longer and is easier to operate and clean than any other.

THE PRESIDENT'S CHALLENGE

There is a deep significance in what President Coolidge had to say to the National Council of Congregational Churches of the United States at Washington recently.

As a matter of fact, he there proclaimed a warning more emphatic even than that implied in the recent report of the Council of Federated Churches.

It is taken for granted that the Republican party in the next presidential campaign will espouse the dry cause, and that President Coolidge will be his party's candidate for re-election. He will champion national prohibition, for it is the law. His public utterances before he became President prove that he considers the prohibition amendment among the deplorable departures from the fundamental principles of the American republic which committed to the states the regulation of the conduct of citizens.

In his address to the Congregationalists President Coolidge defined no distinctions of lawlessness, but it is very apparent that he had in mind the lawlessness growing out of the adoption of the Eighteenth Amendment and the Volstead enforcement act.

He frankly told his hearers that the Government should not be criticized for "failure to reform all morals, to prevent all crime and generally to abolish all evil." He said:

"I have great faith in the local and National Governments of the United States, but much of this field is beyond their reach. They were not established to discharge this duty; they are utterly unable to accomplish it."

President Coolidge asserted that "lawlessness is altogether too prevalent and lack of respect for government and the conventions of enlightened society too apparent."

This, rather vehemently, is denied by prominent uplifters of the prohibition persuasion. But the President is not to be deceived. His mind is not obscured by prejudice. He challenges religion to do its duty. He holds that religion and law must be linked together, that evil can be deterred only by constituted authority when backed by public sentiment. Responsibility for the breaking down of the law lies with the church-goer and society leaders, is his belief.

The President told his hearers: "The utmost ingenuity on the part of the police powers will be substantially all wasted in an effort to enforce the law if there does not exist a strong and vigorous determination on the part of the people to observe the law. Such a determination cannot be produced by the Government."

The President was not talking to or about bootleggers. He was talking to a public responsible for a state of "lawlessness altogether too prevalent and a lack of respect for government and the conventions of enlightened society too apparent."

And this concluding wise admonition, which should penetrate the consciousness of even the most uncompromising fanatic:

"I can conceive of no adequate remedy for the evils which beset society except through the influences of religion."—Cincinnati Enquirer.

Got His Horseshoes

When the manager of an Allentown (Pa.) moving picture house inserted an advertisement in a paper announcing that every child with a horseshoe would be admitted to one afternoon's performance, he misjudged the horse population of the city. Instead of about 200 youngsters appearing with the "luck charm," 4,000 stormed the theater. Many of the horseshoes were new, and some horseshoeing establishments were obliged to lay in a new stock before they were able to continue in business.

Heat with Distinction

At last it is proved that a home heater can be good looking—ornamental, if you will—as well as a practical heat-producing utility.

The Mueller Furnacette marks the greatest advance in home heating equipment since the invention of the heating stove. It is the joint creation of master furniture designers and skilled heating engineers. There is distinction in every line of its well-balanced, walnut-grained, vitreous enamel cabinet.

And as for heat—never was there an above-floor heater of any kind that could compare with the Furnacette in heating efficiency! It heats the whole house by continuously re-circulating warm, moist air thru all the rooms. It provides more comfortable, more uniform heat than two or three stoves combined, yet uses no more fuel than an ordinary heating stove.

FIVE POINTS ORCHESTRA.

The Columbus Dispatch of Thursday carries the picture of Helen Knapp, an eight year old girl of Five Points, on the front page and says:

This little eight year old miss is the leader of a real orchestra, of which she is the youngest member. The oldest is 14 years. The orchestra is composed of pupils in the grade school at Five Points, Ohio, a little town in Pickaway county, and needless to say, it is the pride of the town. It gives concerts in the school-house, and recently journeyed to Grove City for a recital. The entire orchestra comes to Columbus every Saturday morning to take their music lessons.

Defiance, O.—Defiance challenges sunflower growers to equal the record of a Kansas "rose" which is blooming here 35 feet above the sidewalk near the center of town. BUCHANAN'S LOG CABIN TO BE SAVED

Birthplace of Former President to Be Memorial.

Chambersburg, Pa.—The weather-worn log cabin in which James Buchanan, fifteenth President of the United States, was born on April 23, 1791, is to be restored and preserved as a memorial to Pennsylvania's only President.

Built originally by the President's father in the mountains of southern Pennsylvania, the cabin was moved nearly a century ago to Mercersburg, where it has since stood, used much of the time as a tenant house. Now it is being torn down and moved again; this time to Chambersburg, where it will be rebuilt on a lot near the center of the town.

The elder Buchanan was an Irishman who came to America soon after the Revolution, and set out to make a living as a trader among the Indians and frontiersmen. Choosing a lonely spot in the hills north of the Maryland border he built two log cabins, one for a home and the other a store. In time his place became known to the traders as "Stony Batter."

His trading operations proved so profitable that Buchanan finally moved to Mercersburg and from there he sent his son to school and later to college. The younger man became a leader in local affairs and represented his district in the state legislature and in congress. In 1856 he was elected President. He died in Lancaster in 1868, and was buried there.

In later years the President's sisters erected a stone pyramid at the site of his birthplace. This stands today, hidden in a grove of pine trees.

The oak logs of the old cabin are well preserved.

Wisdom in a Nutshell

Pryor Irwin told this one while in Eldorado recently, says the Times. A woman wrote to Dorothy Dix, famous newspaper matrimonial and love consultant. Said the correspondent: "I am getting along in years and a man has asked me to marry him. It is probably my last chance. But I have a horrible secret. I have false teeth. I have concealed this from him so far. I am afraid that if I tell him of my affliction now he will refuse to marry me. And if he marries me and finds out my toothless state later, he will probably divorce me. What shall I do?" To which Miss Dix very aptly and very wisely replied: "Marry him and keep your mouth shut."—Kansas City Star.

None BUT The Rich Can Afford Cheap CLOTHES

In the final analysis "cheap" Clothes are expensive at any price.

They are seldom styled to retain their shape, consequently do not wear well, leaving a sense of disappointment to the wearer.

To delude yourself with the idea that because the initial price is small is false economy, because there is no saving in money. It is good judgment however, to buy your clothes from a wear investment standpoint and such clothes are
